- L. To foster cooperation, for mutual benefit, with other agent associations;
- M. To stand united to accomplish these objectives;

Be it resolved that we join together under the following bylaws of the Association;

BYLAWS OF THE UNITED FARMERS AGENTS ASSOCIATION, INC.

Incorporated in the State of California, August 27, 1967

Revised June 9th, 2015

ARTICLE I - MEMBERS

Section 1. Membership in the Association shall be limited to the following classes:

- a. Regular Members: Farmers Insurance Agents with an in force Agent Appointment Agreement.
- b. Associate Members: Former agents of Farmers Insurance Group who no longer have an in force Agent Appointment Agreement and who:
 - i. Are not employees, agents or representatives of an insurance company that offers one or more of the same lines of insurance as Farmers Insurance Group.
 - ii. Do not hold appointments with any insurance companies that offer one or more of the same lines of insurance as Farmers Insurance Group.
 - iii. Either do not hold an insurance license or can provide, upon request, documentation that they do not hold any prohibited appointments if they do hold an insurance license.
 - iv. This category would include a former Farmers agent who works for Farmers Insurance Group or who works for a Farmers agent with an in force Agent Appointment Agreement.
- c. Affiliate Members: Former agents of Farmers Insurance Group who no longer have an in force Agent Appointment Agreement, do not work for Farmers Insurance or a Farmers Insurance Agent, and who meet any of the following:

- i. Are employees, agents or representatives of an insurance company that offers one or more of the same lines of insurance as Farmers Insurance Group.
 - ii. Hold an appointment with an insurance company that offers one or more of the same lines of insurance as Farmers Insurance Group.
 - iii. Hold an insurance license but cannot provide, upon request, documentation that they do not hold any prohibited appointments.
- d. Advocate Members: This category includes all persons who have never been a Farmers Agent with an Agent Appointment Agreement. This category may include employees of a Farmers Agent or Farmers Insurance Group who have never been party to an Agent Appointment Agreement themselves. It may also include friends of UFAA. Advocate member applications shall be subject to approval by the Chapter President of the local chapter to which the applicant wishes to join and by the Membership Director for national chapters.
- e. Limited Members: Any current or former Farmers agent wishing to access UFAA sponsored programs. Eligibility for this class will be defined by the program administrators. A limited member is so named as their only benefit is access to UFAA sponsored programs and they cannot receive any other benefit of membership.

Section 2. Membership Designations – a membership designation may provide certain specified privileges and/or benefits beyond the standard membership class but it is a designation in addition to the membership class and does not replace or supersede the membership class.

- a. Member Emeritus: This honor is bestowed on a member by a majority vote of the Assembly for exceptional and meritorious service to the Association.
 - i. Only a Regular or Associate member may be designated as a Member Emeritus.
 - ii. Members Emeritus will have their dues waived for as long as they hold the designation.
 - iii. The designation may be revoked by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the assembly.
 - iv. A nomination for the Member Emeritus status must be submitted in writing to the National Office by at least three (3) members in good standing at least forty-five (45) days prior to Convention so that the vote may be placed on the agenda.
- b. Distinguished Member: This honor is bestowed on a member by a majority vote of their local chapter for exceptional and meritorious service to the chapter.
 - i. Only a Regular, Associate, or Affiliate member who has been a Regular member for at least two years, or was a Regular member for at least two years at any time in the past, may be designated as a Distinguished Member.
 - ii. The designation may be revoked by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the chapter.
- c. Member Expedited: A member in any category except Limited Members may opt to add this membership designation as prescribed in the standing rules in order to be eligible for membership benefits which have a membership longevity requirement that the member does not otherwise meet.

Section 3. Membership Dues:

- a. Membership dues and payment methods shall be as prescribed in the Standing Rules of the Association.

- b. Twenty-five percent (25%) of the collected dues for all members belonging to a local chapter shall be rebated to that local chapter from the National Treasury.
- c. Ten percent (10%) of the collected dues for Limited Members shall be divided equally and rebated to the local chapters from the National Treasury.
- d. Any person whose membership dues are ninety (90) days past due shall be dropped from the membership rolls and their membership shall be considered lapsed.
- e. Any Limited Member converted to a Regular Member shall have the collected dues from the current calendar year credited toward their Regular Member dues and if joining a local chapter, twenty-five percent (25%) of the collected Regular Member dues beyond the credited Limited Member dues shall be distributed to the local chapter from the National Treasury.

Section 4. Discipline and Removal of a Member:

- a. A member may be removed from the Association by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of “no confidence” by the Assembly.
- b. The Association may take disciplinary action against a member, up to and including removal from the Association, for misconduct by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the National Board after a hearing in which the alleged misconduct is presented and the member is given the opportunity to defend his or her actions.

Section 5. Member in Good Standing – A member in good standing shall be defined as a member who is current in the payment of their dues, is correctly categorized in their membership class, and who is not subject to a disciplinary action.

Section 8. Meetings of the National Board shall be held at the request of the President, or the majority of the National Board, at a time and place of their choosing.

Section 9. The National Board may hold votes to conduct the business of the Association electronically. To do this, a motion must be submitted to the entire National Board and will require an affirmative vote of the majority of the entire board, via electronic reply to all board members, within one business day of the motion being submitted.

Section 10. The President may appoint and dismiss, with the approval of a majority vote of the National Board, advisory members to the Board as needed. Such appointed members shall assist the Board but will not have a Board vote or hold any other powers of the elected Board. They shall be considered a member of the Assembly along with Delegates and elected members of the Board.

Section 11. All contracts must be approved by the National Board and signed by two National Officers. No member may commit to or contract for products or services without approval of the National Board or the Assembly.

ARTICLE III – GOVERNMENT OF THE ASSOCIATION & MEETINGS

Section 1. The government of the Association shall be vested in an Assembly composed of the National Officers and one (1) Delegate vote per ten (10) Local Chapter members, as counted on the last business day ninety (90) days prior to the National Convention, which shall be held at least once per calendar year to convene the Assembly for the purpose of electing officers, receiving reports of officers and committees, and for any other business that may arise.

Section 2. Special meetings may be called by the President, the Assembly majority, or the National Board majority. At least two (2) weeks’ notice of any special meeting shall be given in writing to the Delegates of the Assembly. In the event that a Delegate cannot attend a special meeting of the Assembly, voting may be done by mail or electronically, provided that it is received twenty-four (24) hours prior to the start of the meeting. The purpose of the meeting shall be stated in the call.

Section 3. All meetings of the Assembly or the National Board shall require a majority presence to constitute a quorum.

Section 4. The Chapter Presidents shall meet the day before the start of the National Convention and may opt to hold an additional meeting once per year, at least three months prior to the National Convention.

- a. The Association shall bear the responsibility for procuring and paying for the room in which these meetings will be held.
- b. The Chapter Presidents meetings shall be presided over by a chair or co-chairs elected by the Chapter Presidents at the prior year's meeting.
- c. The Chapter Presidents' chair or co-chairs shall work with the Chapter Presidents Committee and National Board Vice President to make arrangements for the meetings.
- d. A Chapter President who is unable to attend may opt to send a chapter member in good standing in their place as their representative.
- e. A Chapter President, or his/her representative, may be reimbursed or given an allowance by the chapter for any or all reasonable expenses for attending the Chapter Presidents' meetings as set forth in the Chapter's bylaws.

- e. Chapter Presidents Committee
 - i. The Chapter Presidents Committee shall be made up of the Vice-President, the Chapter Presidents Meeting Chair or Co-Chairs, and at least two (2) other Chapter Presidents.
 - ii. It shall be the duty of this committee to select the location and make plans for the Chapter Presidents Meeting held three (3) or more months before Convention.
 - iii. It shall be the duty of this committee to review and approve or deny requests from Chapters for financial assistance from other Chapters.
- f. Convention Committee
 - i. The Convention Committee shall be made up of the Vice-President and at least three (3) Delegates.
 - ii. It shall be the duty of this committee to make recommendations for the location and plans for the Convention.

ARTICLE VII – PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

In all cases where these bylaws, the Association’s standing rules, or any special rules which may be adopted by the Association do not otherwise specify, the Association shall be governed by the latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised. The National Convention shall also be conducted under Robert’s Rules of Order except as otherwise established by the Association’s standing or special rules.

ARTICLE VIII – ALTERATIONS TO THE BYLAWS

These bylaws may be amended or revised at any National Convention by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the Assembly present, provided there is a quorum and:

- a. Any proposed amendment shall be submitted in writing to the National Office or bylaws

- committee at least ninety (90) days prior to the start of Convention, shall include the article & section to be changed and the intended reason for the change, and shall be signed by at least three (3) members in good standing.
- b. Any proposed revised bylaws shall be submitted in writing to the National Office or bylaws committee at least ninety (90) days prior to the start of Convention, shall include the intended reason for the replacement, and shall be signed by at least three (3) members in good standing.
 - c. All proposed amendments or revisions shall be sent to Delegates at least thirty (30) days prior to the start of Convention.
 - d. The Assembly, by majority vote, may reduce the above requirements to twenty (20) days to allow for consideration of a proposed amendment submitted after the deadlines. The above submittal requirements may not be waived for revised bylaws due to the consideration needed for a complete replacement of the bylaws.
 - e. Alterations to bylaw amendments under consideration may be made from the floor assuming they do not substantially alter the intended purpose of the proposed change or create a conflict with other portions of the bylaws. The alterations must be accepted by a majority vote prior to voting on the final bylaw amendment.
 - f. Alterations to revised bylaws under consideration may be made from the floor. The alterations must be accepted by a majority vote prior to voting on the final adoption of the proposed revised bylaws.

ARTICLE IX - INDEMNIFICATION

To the full extent allowed by law, the Association shall indemnify its current and former officers, directors, chapter officers, advisory members and employees for all loss, costs and expenses, including counsel fees, reasonably incurred in connection with any action, suit or proceeding which they may be made a party to by reason of their affiliation with the Association and as a result of the good faith performance of their duties. This indemnification shall not apply if there is a willful disregard of the responsibilities of their position, willful misconduct, or gross negligence.

ARTICLE X - DISSOLUTION

The Association may be dissolved by a three-fourths (3/4) majority vote of the entire Assembly or by a unanimous vote of the National Board. Upon dissolution of the Association, all assets remaining shall, after payment of or provision for authorized debts, expenditures, and liabilities, be distributed to another 501(c) non-profit organization. No part of the net assets of the Association shall inure to the benefit of or be paid or distributed to any individual.
